Nonprofit

Overview
When BPM established its Nonprofit Industry Group over three decades ago, one of our founding goals was to make a significant difference in the way nonprofits were served by those in our industry. With their tight budgets and limited staff, they needed a better solution to the way they handled their finances.

Today, our group contains over 60 professionals who employ a full-service approach to accounting for nonprofits. We assist with auditing and tax preparation, consulting, outsourcing, technology, and investment consulting—areas in which changes occur frequently and up-to-date information is key to making decisions.

We understand the unique operational and financial challenges faced by nonprofits. With a strong commitment to the community we have served on many of their boards and have aided hundreds of nonprofit organizations—firsthand. This experience allows BPM to offer nonprofits the most value and the best service available in the marketplace today.

Areas We Serve:
- Arts and Culture
- Associations
- Public Charities
- Educational Institutions
- Environmental Organizations
- Government
- Health care
- Private Foundations
- Private Schools
- Religious Organizations
- Social Welfare Agencies

Nonprofit Educational Series

To better serve your organization, BPM’s Nonprofit Education Series provide in-person and webinar classes to help you better understand significant emerging issues you may face in your sector. To ensure your success, our speakers are selected based on their proven expertise, wealth of knowledge and distinct track record. Sessions are available free of charge, however registration is required.
