

BPM Appoints 4 New Partners in 2019 Who Exemplify Its Continued Growth

10.10.19

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. – BPM LLP, one of the 50 largest public accounting and advisory firms in the country, is excited to welcome four new partners – Terry Hill, Bryan Rhody, Andre Shevchuck and Minnie Wright.

“These partners are not only hard workers, team players and dedicated leaders, they are also great individuals who make BPM a better, stronger Firm every day for our community, clients and our people,” said BPM CEO Jim Wallace. “We’re excited to welcome this exceptional group of individuals with diverse backgrounds and experiences to the Firm’s partnership.”

Hill leads BPM’s CFO Services practice and supports middle market companies through rapid growth, capital raise, M&A and turnaround. He brings more than 20 years of professional services and consulting to BPM’s Advisory group. Hill also serves on the Board of Directors for the Association for Corporate Growth San Francisco.

Rhody leads BPM’s Technology Solutions group, where he is focused on providing operational improvements through cloud technology consulting services. Through his 20-year tenure, he has played a key role in hundreds of Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) system implementations and effectively assists clients align their business strategies with technology. Under his leadership, the Technology Solutions Group works closely with software solution providers such as NetSuite, Sage Intacct and more.

Shevchuck leads BPM’s Research and Development (“R&D”) Tax Credit Consulting practice and is focused on expanding BPM’s service offerings to include other value-added tax based incentives. With over 15 years of public accounting experience, Shevchuck serves clients of all sizes across a wide variety of industries. He is also involved in the local community, serving on the Board of Directors of the Lindsay Wildlife Experience.

Wright leads BPM’s IC-DISC Export Tax Incentive practice, one the largest of its kind in California, and is a key member of the Firm’s International Tax Services team. Given her expertise, she serves as an expert resource to over 50 CPA firms across the Central Valley and the country on IC-DISC work. Wright has over 25 years of accounting experience and co-leads the Firm’s Agriculture Industry Group, servicing manufacturers, growers, farmers, processors in the Bay Area and beyond.

Hill, Rhody, Shevchuck and Wright will join BPM’s partnership effective November 1, 2019. To learn more, visit <http://bpmcpa.com>.

About BPM

BPM LLP is one of the 50 largest public accounting and advisory firms in the country. With more than 500 professionals along the West Coast – as well as offices in Bengaluru, India and the Cayman Islands – we help clients succeed around the world. We offer a cross-functional team approach that gives clients direct access to the best and most qualified resources.