SAN FRANCISCO -- March 24, 2016 -- BPM, is pleased to announce that Jamie Emerson-Heery, Assurance Manager, has been selected as a winner of the North Bay Business Journal's 10th annual Forty Under 40 awards. '

The winners, selected by the Journal editorial staff from more than 125 nominations, were chosen on the basis of their leadership in companies and organizations as well as their participation within the community across the North Bay.

"This award is well deserved," commented Carol O'Hara, Managing Partner of the Firm's North Bay Offices. "Jamie has a tremendous work ethic and is a positive role model within the firm and community."

"Jamie always promotes a team atmosphere and rolls up his sleeves when we need extra help," his nominator added. Jamie joined BPM in 2008 and focuses his practice serving clients in the wine and financial services industry. He also provides accounting and consulting services to the nonprofit organization, International Institute for Humanistic Studies. Most recently, Jamie joined the Community Relations Committee of the St. Helena Chamber of Commerce.
