

Planning & Compliance

Overview

Just as important as ensuring tax compliance is planning a successful tax strategy for your business. After all, to compete successfully in an increasingly competitive environment, you must heed the tax implications of your business decisions. Minimizing risks and maximizing savings are significant goals for all businesses, but these actions can be extremely challenging.

BPM prepares many tax returns for businesses each year, and our approach to tax planning and compliance is proactive and customized to your needs. Our professionals possess deep expertise in tax law as well as experience in a wide number of industries. You can rest assured that your business meets all of the rules and regulations it faces while also saving as much as it can. Because we're results-driven, your company will benefit from accessible leadership, fast response times, and knowledge of key issues that affect your company.

Contact

Robert Houston, CPA
Partner, Tax
415-288-6238
RHouston@bpmcpa.com